

New Development in 2014

The children's home in Madagascar has begun providing day care services and are now serving 40 children.

New Eden Charity Foundation in Myanmar has officially joined our Light and Love Home family. We are striving together to provide long-term services in Myanmar.

The new children's home building in Nepal was completed! Representatives from our affiliated organizations around the world came to participate in the grand opening and celebration.

Light and Love Home has started to support and manage two children's homes in DR Congo, striving to enhance the orphans' living standard and to help them go to school again.

Faith, Hope and Love Children's Home in Honduras has started an English academy to provide English lessons to their children. We also plan to accept other students from the community to enhance their language proficiency.

Light and Love Home has successfully registered a new branch in Rajasthan, India. Promptly we started various services, such as afterschool tutoring, cow farm, sponsorship to orphans, etc.
